

Set Designer - Sydney

An opportunity exists for a talented Set Designer to join our Sydney team. If you have solid experience in set design and are a team player who is able to adapt to a variety of production styles and deadline requirements then we would like to hear from you.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Responsible for designing high quality, pitch winning profitable solutions
- Work in partnership with Sales Manager, Account Managers, Business Development Managers and Venues to ensure creative briefs are met
- Provide creative solutions with a strong emphasis on innovation
- Participate in client pitches
- Assist with the Production of quotes and proposals for both internal and external clients as required
- Obtain quotations and liaise with outside suppliers where appropriate
- Maintain or modify sets for use on other events;
- Liaise with the Event Directors/Stylists and Technical Event Directors to ensure a detailed construction brief of all manufacturing required;
- Estimate materials and labour needed to complete set and prop manufacture;

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN THIS POSITION

- Minimum 5 years solid experience in set design (preferably within the event staging industry);
- Ability to translate client requirements into job specifications;
- Strong time management skills; the ability to manage multiple and competing deadlines;
- High level of accuracy and attention to detail.
- Proficient in the use of Maya or 3DS Max.
- Vectorworks skills are beneficial.
- Proposal writing experience
- Project management skills

If this sounds like you, please send your resume, covering letter and portfolio/show reel to Daniel Lourenco, dlourenco@stagingconnections.com

INTEGRATED EVENT SERVICES
Technical • Styling • Design • Digital

stagingconnections.com