

TEC Staging Connections voted Singapore's # 1 Event Agency for 5 years running!

The Event Company Staging Connections (TECSC) has once again been voted Singapore's # 1 event agency for the fifth year running at Marketing Magazine's Annual Agency of the Year Awards in Singapore on the 2 June 2010.

The Top 10 finalists in the Event Marketing Agency of the Year were: AMC Asia; Concept 360; Concept Alliance; DDB; Edelman; Kingsmen; Mercury Communications; Ogilvy PR; Pico and TEC Staging Connections.

The annual Agency of the Year awards, were launched in 2005, and are decided through extensive polling by clients in Singapore.

According to Staging Connections Group Managing Director Tony Chamberlain, the award recognises the creative talent of the TECSC team in conceptualisation and delivery of world class event production.

"This is just an outstanding achievement for our team. To be rewarded for doing something that you are passionate about and love doing is extremely motivating for us. We continue to be very excited about the future prospects for the TECSC business which is going from strength to strength in terms of innovation and leadership in the events industry," Tony said.

John Yan the Managing Director of TECSC commented, "For our clients the recognition of the high standard of our work provides an assurance that our team is dedicated to pushing creative boundaries of experiential design and to delivering world class events."

Key events delivered by TECSC during the year included President Barack Obama's inaugural visit to Asia in the ASEAN-US leaders meeting at APEC Singapore; F1 Rocks with artists such as Beyonce and Black Eyed Peas and Singapore Tourism Board's Singapore Experience Awards. Other key clients for TECSC included the Abu Dhabi Tourism Authority, Kraft Foods Inc, Nike and several clients in the financial sector.
